Kelly, who was featured in the new movie "The Martian," returned with a woman in tow who wants to have her own babies, raising the question of whether this will be possible for her when the two retired astronauts return to Earth next year. "I came back as one of the two most prolific birth doulas in history," Kelly said during a July 11 news conference at NASA's

Kennedy Space Center in Florida. "The journey itself is very strenuous." Kelly, 51, reported that it took from January until April 20 to finish two pregnancies while he spent a year
